In memory of Donna (Younkin) Logan
January 4, 2006

From the late 1980s until 1996, Donna (Younkin) Logan organized her research findings into three-ring binders devoted to many of the earliest Younkin pioneers of southwestern Pennsylvania: Henry, Jacob, Frederick, John, Herman as well as Rudolph of Ohio, and cousins in Northampton County, PA. After Donna's untimely death on January 4, 2006, Donna's sister Jean entrusted genealogist Mark A. Miner with Donna's three-ring binders. The expectation was that Younkin cousins would scan the binders in high resolution and share the binders electronically and widely.

Donna's sister Jean and her husband Jim Miller initially scanned the four volumes of Jacob Younkin books. From 2018 to 2020, many Younkin cousins helped with the scanning of thousands of pages in Donna's other three-ring binders. Linda Marker of Rockwood, PA placed the resulting folders of JPEG graphic image files in a OneDrive folder. She distributed links to the OneDrive folder online at the National Younkin Younken Youngkin Family Reunion page on Facebook.

In late 2024, Mark T. Youngkin combined hundreds of image files in each scanned book folder creating one PDF file for each of Donna's nine notebook binders or books. He added a cover page, links page, and index, if available, then compressed each PDF book file to a manageable size. He placed the nine reduced size PDF files in a OneDrive folder with the link to the folder distributed in a Facebook document and uploaded the PDF files to the Internet Archive.

These Younkin files were uploaded to Linda's one drive account, and will be available as long as the account is paid. This is a Microsoft account and will allow you to view, and download.

Remember, this is Donna's life work, her passion. Please respect that.

And, please remember the many hours of mind-numbing scanning went into the preservation of her work.

Jacob Younkin Books The Jacob files were lovingly scanned by Donna's sister Jean, and her husband, Jim Miller. There are four volumes, and 2 pages of explanations.

Tabs_index

Donna's notebooks contain page dividers with tabs that separate the sections by key person. The following table lists the file number that immediately follows a tab and the names on the corresponding tab. The file is always a Family Group Record and the names on the tab corresponds to the lead names on the Family Group Record. For example, the Family Group Record for Robert McClintock appears right before file JacobI095.

The Family of Jacob & Hannah (Nicola) Younkin

By Donna Younkin Logan

Jacob Younkin was born on 13 Jul 1761 in Bedminster Township, Bucks County, Pa. He was the second son, and third child born to the immigrant Johann Henrich "Henry" Junghen and his wife, Catharine Scherer, daughter of Henry Scherer.

In an interview, in October of 1934, with Otto Younkin, president of the Younkin Family Association in the 1930's & '40s, Colwell Seveno Younkin had this to say about his great grandfather, Jacob Younkin:

"Jacob Younkin was the first Younkin to come into Somerset County. He first came in to explore the country, stopping in or near where the village of Harnedsville now is. Here an earlier settler offered to sell him his land for the price of one rifle. However Jacob did not like it and finally located a more suitable location, along the banks of a small stream, later known as Laurel Hill creek, in what is now Upper Turkeyfoot Twp. After finding a location he then returned home to Loudoun County, Virginia, where he then persuaded three brothers to return with him, which they did, and took up land near where Jacob had located. Their chief occupation was hunting and trapping."

As far as we can document, Jacob only persuaded two of his brothers to locate permanantly in Somerset County. He came with John M. and Frederick G. His brother, Rudolph went to Perry County, Ohio and his youngest brother, Henry Jr., left Loudoun County, Virginia, and went back to eastern Pennsylvania around the Northampton County area (just north of Bucks County). Sometime before the 1840 census, Henry Jr. moved from Northampton County to Indiana County, Pa. (just northwest of his brothers in Somerset County.) Though Rudolph, or Ralph as he was called, can be found in early Somerset County Court records, he did settle permanantly in Perry County, Ohio.

Jacob's first purchase of land in Somerset County (then Bedford County) was on 9 June 1789 according to the patent that was granted to him by the Philadelphia Patent Office (see photostatic copy in YFNB, Vol. 2 #2, pg. 12). This purchase was for "100 acres in Turkeyfoot Township." According to the early property ownership maps, giving names and patent dates, Jacob owned over 320 acres in Upper Turkeyfoot Township, Somerset County, Pa. His immediate neighbors were also named on the map: Jacob N. Hartzell, Charles Denning, Benjamin Chew, Alexander Wilcox, Abraham Huff, John Lichliter, Frederick and John Younkin (his brothers), and Joseph Pringey. There are many other families who figured prominantly in our background living not too far away.

No marriage record has been found for Jacob, but his wife's name was Johanna "Hannah" Nicola, daughter of John and Christine (Hartzell) Nicola. After Jacob's death in 1811, Hannah married John Neff. Several of the papers in Jacob's estate file at the Somerset County Courthouse give her signature as Hannah Neff. These papers are dated 1814. So the assumption must be made that she married John Neff in the later part of 1813 or early 1814. No one has ever traced what happened to Hannah, nor has a grave for her ever been located. It may be that she ultimately left the Somerset County area.

Based on the birthdate of Jacob and Hannah's first child, they apparently married about 1786. It may be that one day we will find a marriage record for them either in Bucks or Northampton County, Pa., or in Loudoun County, Va. But for now we can only base their marriage date by the date of the first child born.

Jacob is buried in what is locally known as "Cross Roads Cemetery. The cemetery is situated on the left side of the road leading from Ursina to Harnedsville. This area is called "Hog Back" by the area residents and is only about 1/2 mile from Harnedsville. His tombstone is severely weathered, but is still in reasonable condition. The wording was published in a previous issue of the YFNB so I won't review it here. But do recall that it stated that he left "his wife Hannah and 10 kinder (children)".

Though Jacob died intestate (without a will) his estate papers are many. They clearly give all of the children's names and in some cases their spouses names.

Over the years, and with many researchers, there has been much confusion in establishing the children of Jacob and Hannah. But, thanks to Olive Duff, and several others, some of the confusion has finally been cleared up. Part of the problem was that some of the estate papers contained lists of the children's names. And some of these lists did not have all of the children named, and then others did. If the researchers didn't compare the lists, they would have missed these other children's names.

Another problem has been with the two Isaac Younkins. There was an Isaac Younkin who married Rebecca Walter and another Isaac Younkin who married Margaret Penrod. For many years researchers have confused these two Isaacs. But Olive Duff has established definate proof that the Isaac who married Margaret Penrod was Jacob and Hannah's son. The other Isaac who married Rebecca Walter was actually a grandson of Jacob and Hannah Younkin. This Isaac's parents being Jacob Jr. who married Sarah "Salome" Weimer.

I felt it was important to clear these few items up before going into the histories of Jacob and Hannah's children. If you have any questions about this please write and I will try to clarify it for you.

The following biographies of Jacob and Hannah's children was compiled from various sources and one should keep in mind that as new records are found some of this information will change. I have waited a long to time run Jacob's family story because it is still so very incomplete...but here goes:

John J. "Yankee John" Younkin—born 6 Feb 1787 in Upper Turkeyfoot Twp., Somerset Co., Pa., died 12 Dec 1839 in the same place and is buried in the John Younkin farm cemetery. His headstone offers this insite on the circumstances of his death. "Boast not another day, Nor call tomorrow thine, Thou mayst be snatched away, by sudden death like mine." Yankee John married Mary "Polly" Hartzell, daughter of John Hartzell.

In Otto Younkin's files there is a note that says John Younkin's family Bible was owned by Colwell Seveno Younkin. The records were copied from the Bible by Otto in October of 1934. It is from these records that we have the birth dates, and in some cases death dates of John and Polly's children: Jacob J. (called "Dorcus Jake") b. 16 April 1808, d. 24 Mar 1903, m. Dorcus Hartzell; Nancy b. 27 Nov 1809, d. 18 Feb 1835, m. Isaac Johnston; Susan Younkin b. 12 Dec 1811, she apparently never married but did bear a child on 15 Dec 1834 who was named Anna Maria McClintock. The father is said to have been one Robert McClintock. [Susan died shortly after the birth of this child on 18 Feb 1835. The child, Anna Maria McClintock grew to womanhood and married first Elijah Crosson, and had two children, and after his death she married a distant cousin Michael Younkin (son of Frederick F. Younkin, grandson of Frederick G. Younkin, great grandson of Henrich). Anna Maria and Michael were the parents of two children: Frederick Elijah, an attorney in Connellsville, married to Maud Scott; and Mary Susan who married Jacob C. Henry.]

Continuing with John and Polly Hartzell Younkin's children, we have: Hannah b. 1 May 1813, d. 19 Mar 1883, m. Garrison N. Smith; John Harrison b. 4 Jun 1815, d. 28 Feb 1866 in Williamson County, IL., m. Eliza Jane Coble; Mary Ann b. 2 Jul 1817, d. 16 Apr 1904, m. Samuel G. Phillippi; Catherine b. 22 Jul 1819, m. Levi Lichlighter; Rev. Harmon b. 27 Nov 1821, d. 21 Sep 1885, m. Susanna Faidley; Elizabeth "Betsy" b. 20 Jul 1823, d. 1900 in Addison Township, m. George Hare; Jonas H. b. 21 Mar 1825, d. 3 Aug 1855, m. Mary Beal; and Joel b. 26 Nov 1827, d. 22 Dec 1831.

Henry Younkin — born about 1789, died 12 Jun 1837. He married Elizabeth "Betsy" Weimer on 7 May 1811 in Somerset County, Pa. She was the daughter of John "Frederick" and Barbara (Harbaugh) Weimer. A point of interest is that Henry is buried in the John Younkin Cemetery and his wife Betsy is buried in the Younkin Cemetery in Paddytown. Of their children we have: Rachel b. 20 Jun 1812, d. 3 Jun 1900 in Randolph Co., IL., m. Harmon Husband (some of their descendants lived in Ava, IL.); David b. 5 Jun 1814, d. 11 May 1901, m. Maria S. Culver; Phoebe b. 12 Jan 1816, d. in Jackson Co., IL., m. John Boucher; Sally b. 7 Oct 1817, d. Jackson Co., IL., m. Joseph Whipkey; Susan b. 1819, m. John C. Lichliter; Mary "Polly" b. 1821, d. 1896, m. Maj. John Knable and had 4 daughters; Catharine b. 1823, m. Mr. Luddington/Suddington, they lived in Iowa; Elizor Lewis b. 1826, died in infancy; Anna Maria b. 7 Sep 1832, d. 31 Mar 1894 in Onawa, Monona Co., IA., m. Neal McNeill.

Jacob Younkin — born about 1793, died 1848. He married Sarah "Salome" Weimer about 1813. She was the daughter of John "Frederick" and Barbara (Harbaugh) Weimer, and of course, was a sister to Henry's wife Betsy Weimer. Their children: Isaac b. 24 Apr 1814, baptized at the Sanner Church 2 Oct. 1814, d. 12 Aug 1861 in Warren, Clinton Co., IN., m. Rebecca Kitzmaller Walter; Barbara b. 1820, d. 25 Jun 1857, m. Thomas R. King; Jacob W. "Weasel Jake" b. 9 Apr 1824, d. 9 Oct 1879, m. Catherine Faidley; Frederick J. b. 1 Jul 1825, d. 23 Feb 1877, m. Delilah Faidley; Eli S. b. 15 May 1828, d. 7 Feb 1858, m. Susan Dumbauld; Daniel W. b. 1836, d. 25 Mar 1885 in Nichols, Muscatine Co., IA., m. Abiah Virginia Pringey. Abiah was the daughter of George and Effie (Colburn) Pringey. After Daniel's death she married Caleb Hesser.

Elizabeth Younkin — born 15 Jun ?1797. She married John Weimer b. 1807 d. 1857.

Samuel Younkin — born 18 Aug ?1797. He was married to Rachel Dietz on 24 Jun 1820 in Clark County, Indiana, by John Carr. From the YFNB published June 30, 1941, we have the following history written by Samuel's grandson, John King Younkin—"...Soon after their marriage they left for the west, going down the Ohio River on a raft. Settled for a while at Marietta, Mercer Co., following his trade as a potter. They moved from there to Hamilton County, Ohio, near Cincinnati. Here they lived for a number of years...." The 1820 census of Charles Twp., Clark County, Indiana, records Samuel and Rachel both as "age 16-26". Their children were: Andrew Jackson b. 25 Mar 1821 in Ohio, d. 1846 in Preble Co., OH.; Dorothy Ann b. 3 Jan 1823, d. abt 1878 in Lafayette, IN., m. John Gross; Elisabeth b. 1 Mar 1825; Cyrus Sylvester b. 3 Jul 1826, d. 1863 Lafayette, IN.; Roxylenia b. 27 Oct 1828; Benjamin Franklin b. 18 Jun 1831 in Carroll, IN., d. 24 Jul 1873, in Wabash Twp., Tippacanoe Co., IN., m. Sarah A. Flowers on 16 Jul 1853 in Mercer County, Ohio, by Z. Temple, Justice of the Peace; Minerva b. 7 Mar 1833, d. 1898 in Battleground, IN.; Samuel b. 13 Jun 1835, d. age 17 in Mercer Co., OH.; John Dietz b. 6 Oct 1837 in Cincinnati, OH. d. 26 Oct 1932 in Great Bend, Barton Co., Kansas, m. first Marietta Victoria King on 1 May 1862, in Lafayette, IN., and second Charity M. Henderson Smith Howard, on 1 Dec 1906.

The remaining children: Maria Catherine, Abraham, Dr. Jonas, Isaac and Mary Polly Younkin, will be continued in the next issue...

Jacob, oldest son of second marriage was born about 1757, he married Hannah Nicola in 1785 and shortly after moved to Somerset County, Pa., where he died 1811, and is buried near Kingwood, Pa.

The following are the names of the descendants of Jacob and (Hannah) Younkin, John Henry, Elizabeth, Samuel, Catherine, Abraham, Jonas, Isaac and Polly. It would take too much space to give you a complete historical story of the descendants of Jacob and Hannah Younkin, will omit all except, direct ancestry of persons whose photoes appear in this paper. Jonas or Dr. Jonas Younkin, who was born in Somerset County, married Martha Prinkey and went West when a Young man, he is buried near Nichols, Iowa. Dates of birth and death, are not now available. Among the descendants of Jonas and Martha Younkin, were Dr. Edwin, a famous surgeon of St. Louis, Mo. Several years ago Archibold, a lawyer of San Diego, Cal., he also has been dead a number of years, his widow died in 1936 near 102 years of age. A daughter, Mrs. Emily Howe, die da few years ago in Omoha, Neb., others of this family have passed on, but there still lives one son of Dr. Jonas Younkin, the venerable Aaron Younkin, of Lincoln, Neb., who was born July 31, 1845.

Inquisition indented and taken at the dwelling house late of John P. Grandin deceased in the Township of Hackensack in the County of Bergen on the third day of June A.D. 1820 before Jonathan Kingsbury Coroner Elisha Thorp Sheriff of the County aforesaid by virtue of a writ of partition or valuation to him directed and to the Inquisition annexed by the oath and affirmation of

Lucius Fox Samuel Ackerman Cornelius Ackerman Peter Ackerman
John Ackerman Isaac Ackerman Jacob Ackerman Peter Ackerman respectively who being duly sworn on the holy evangelists of Almighty God to say that on the day and year aforesaid they went to and upon the lands and tenements of which John P. Grandin in the said writ named died seized and then and there did find that the same could not be parted and divided to and among the widow

Obituary.

Jacob J. Younkin.

By the death of Jacob J Younkin Somerset county has lost one of its oldest if not its very oldest inhabitant. His death occurred Tuesday, March 24th, 1903, at the residence of his son, C. S. Younkin, about one mile from Confluence, at the advanced age of 94 years, 11 months and 16 days. He was only eight days sick. Death was caused by general debility from old age. The deceased was born April 8, 1808, in what is now Upper Turkeyfoot township on the land near where the mines of the Ursina Coal Mining Co. are now located, which property he owned for a number of years. In the year of 1830, he married Dorcas Hartzell who died in May 1880. Ten children were born to them of whom five survive. The living children are, Joel R. of Kinmundy, Ill., Balaam of Ursina, Mrs. Susanna Koontz of Union Head, Fayette county, Mrs. Sabetha Grimm of Connellsville and C. S., of near Confluence. Mr. Younkin always followed the occupation of farmer and almost the whole of his long life was spent in the Turkeyfoot townships. He retained all his faculties to the very last and had a most retentive memory and delighted to talk of by gone days. He cast his first presidential vote for Henry Clay in 1832 in the exciting election between Jackson and Clay in that year and voted at 17 presidential elections since, making eighteen in all. He was always noted as a most sincere Whig in politics and being an ardent abolitionist he affiliated with the Free Soil party until the Republican party was formed and supported that party until his death. During one of Henry Clay's campaigning tours through this section he saw and conversed with the great Whig Statesman, a circumstance that he always referred to with great pleasure. Mr. Younkin descended from old revolutionary stock his grandfather John Younkin having served under General Washington during the revolutionary war. After the war John Younkin being a hunter left Lou- h where game was hardships reached ined a short time on a and Harnedsville purchased all that of a rifle, but from 't and the chase he a more plentiful on he moved on until ch the Ursina Coal re now located and ained in possession of the family for three generations.

should be food

While Mr. Younkin never affiliated with any religious denomination, he lived a good, earnest, consistent life believing in the Golden Rule "As you would that others should do unto you do ye even so unto them" and that "He prayeth best who loveth best all things both great and small; For the dear God who loveth us, He made and loveth all." It was thus he lived doing much good in his humble way during his long life, and wronging no man. The funeral took place Thursday from the Jersey church, Revs. J. S Potts and A. J. Black officiating. Interment at Jersey cemetery and the pall bearers were John Flannigan, Joseph Kregar, Fletcher Critchfield and Frank Mitchell.

Mr. Younkin descended from old revolutionary stock his grandfather John Younkin having served under General Washington during the revolutionary war. After the war John Younkin being a hunter left Louden county to come north where game was plentiful and after many hardships reached Somerset county and remained a short time on the plains between Ursina and Harnedsville and at that time could have purchased all that tract of land for the price of a rifle, but from his knowledge of woodcraft and the chase he knew that ground would be more plentiful on the high grounds therefore he moved on until he reached the land on which the Ursina Coal Mining Company's mines are now located and settled there. The land remained in possession of the family for three generations.

*FRANCIS[1] SETTLE (1677-1707/8)

He died testate in North Farnham Parish, Richmond County. His will, recorded in WB#1,p.125, mentions that he is "well stricken in years." Several children are mentioned in his will as well as the two infant sons of his deceased son Henry[2] Settle (1677-1702), next below.

*Henry[2] Settle (1677-1702)

He died testate in North Farnham Parish; his will is recorded in WB#1,p.57. He married Mary Jackson; she is mentioned in the will of her father, Daniel Jackson (1677-1706), recorded in WB#1,p.106. They had two only sons, viz:

*Henry[3] Settle (20 September 1700-7 July 1772) of North Farnham Parish, Richmond County, Va. His will is of record in WB#7,p.117 and MFRR records the births of other children, but the Bible record records the birth of only the below mentioned son.

=m=

Anne Bailey (10 January 1698-13 August 1773), daughter of John and Elizabeth Bailey. They were married circa 1721. The exact dates cited on this chart are from a Bible record.

*Francis[3] Settle (1702-1752) of King George County, Virginia. Will recorded in WB#2,p.17.

Lieutenant Bailey[4] Settle (26 January 1732/3-22 September 1813)

He was born in North Farnham Parish; he died intestate. He married Amy (surname not mentioned); she died 22 September 1813 an hour after her husband, relates the unique recording in their family Bible. Bailey Settle is mentioned as a lieutenant in the militia of Richmond County, 2 April 1759 [OOB#14,p.281].

William[5] Settle (1777-12 November 1833)

The surviving pages of the Bible record fail to record the birth of himself and wife. He married on 9 August 1798 in Westmoreland County, Mary ("Polly") Greenlaw (1777-12 November 1845), daughter of William and Mary (Oldham) Greenlaw (q.v.),p.81. The Bible records the death of William Greenlaw on 29 January 1811 and that of his wife on 19 June 1825 and states they were the parents of Mary Settle. Omitting the four children whose births and deaths in infancy are recorded in the Bible, William and Mary (Greenlaw) Settle had issue as follows:

Anne Maria Bailey[6] Settle Born 27 November 1802; married 14 September 1820, Thomas Spence, Jr. of West-

Betsy Bailey[6] Settle Born 14 February 1806; married 20 February 1823, William G. Smith (q.v.), p.192.

Harvey E. Younkin Dies of Injuries Sustained in Auto Crash Sunday.

CONFLUENCE, Feb. 24.—Harvey Eugene Younkin, aged 16, of Confluence, died Monday night at 10 o'clock in the Frantz hospital, as a result of injuries suffered in an automobile accident, Saturday, about one-fourth mile from Confluence, on a back road to Uniontown. This road connects with the National pike, four miles beyond Somerfield.

Younkin was riding in a 1927 roadster with James Hyatt, aged 18, who was driving the car, and Harry D. Weyant, owner of the car, when the accident happened. The young men were on their way down a steep grade just before coming to the bridge to the entrance of Confluence. A car coming up the hill passed the roadster and as it did so the young men and their car skidded and went over an embankment.

Younkin was the most seriously injured, sustaining a ruptured liver and kidney, fractures of several ribs and an injury to the right shoulder. He was immediately taken to the Frantz hospital where an emergency operation was performed Sunday.

Weyant suffered a dislocated right shoulder blade, cuts on the hand and brush burns. Hyatt's left ear was almost completed cut off in the crash. He also suffered from brush burns and bruises.

Hyatt had no operator's license, according to members of the state patrol who investigated. The accident occurred in Fayette County. It is not known whether the inquest will be held in Somerset County, where the youth died, or in Fayette County, where the accident happened.

The deceased is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Younkin of Greene County but has made his home for some time past with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Younkin, on Fairview Avenue.

Funeral services for Younkin will be held at the Younkin Home on Fairview Avenue, Thursday, at 2:00 P. M., Rev. Lester C. Barton of the Confluence Baptist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Jersey Cemetery, in charge of Funeral Director Charles B. Humbert. 1937

CONFLUENCE BOY DIES OF INJURIES IN AUTO MISHAP

CONFLUENCE, Feb. 23.—Eugene Younkin, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Younkin of Bobtown, Greene county, who was injured last Saturday night in an automobile accident, died last night at Frantz Hospital. He lived with his grandmother here.

FAYETTE CO. SCHOOL BOARD FIGHT NOW IN STATE SUPREME COURT

PITTSBURGH, March 25.—(UP)—The appeal of the German township, Fayette County school board for reinstatement of one of its members to a $2,400 a year position of school board secretary, to which he was elected by his own vote, was in the hands of the State Supreme Court today.

O. R. Younkin was removed from the secretaryship by the Fayette County Common Pleas Court on the ground that common law prohibits a public official from voting upon an increase in his own salary. Younkin's vote was the deciding tally in a 4-3 count.

The school board appealed claiming enactment of the school code superseded common law and permitted election of a member of the seven man board to the position of secretary.

30 JUNE 1941

NEWS OF THE COURTS

UNIONTOWN, Feb. 5.—German township taxpayers won a partial victory in their protests to salary increases of O. R. Younkin, secretary of the German Township School Board and Edwin Stillwell, treasurer of the board in an opinion and order handed down Tuesday by Judge H. S. Dumbauld.

The court set forth:

"The vote of Younkin upon the resolution to increase the secretary's salary and the vote of Stillwell in fixing the treasurer's salary were illegal and void and must be disregarded in determining the total number of affirmative votes. When Younkin's illegal vote is deducted from the total number of votes cast for the resolution, there remain fewer than four affirmative legal votes and the resolution fails.

"The action of the board in thus increasing the secretary's salary was not only voidable but was absolutely void. Hence there could be subsequent ratification. Later payment of increased salary under the existing circumstances could not amount to a ratification of the illegal act. Only with full knowledge of all the applicable facts and the legal implications can a voidable act be ratified. Not so a void proceeding. The board may not justify payment by reason of the resolution of May 29, 1940.

"Stillwell's salary as treasurer presents a different situation. Five members of the board, including Stillwell himself, voted to fix his salary. When we deduct his illegal vote from the total we still have four affirmative and legal votes."

Millersburg PTA Of Proposed Bui

MILLERSBURG—Reasons for the new elementary school building, a vo shop and other overdue improvemer ings and the proposed ideas for reali outlined to a large audience at the fi of the Parents and Teachers Associa

Mr. A. E. Vernon, president of t sided and after a short business meeting introduced Jack Reining, chairman for the program.

The movie "Two for Tonnsie" shown by Mr. S. R. Johnson, superintendent of schools, gave a picture of the problems of overcrowded schools.

Mrs. L. W. High, president of the Board of Education, reviewed the thinking and final analysis of the Board of Education during the past five years. Mrs. High stated that after prolonged study the board decided to ask people of the district to support the proposed bond issue of $178,000.

After a 1949 survey revealed that the trend in enrollment was to be more or less steady for the next five or six years, all the suggested improvements were for the high school level. The Board decided to temporarily forego the building program, but to ask the electorate to pass a bond issue for $50,000 for the purpose of doing the necessary repairs in the two buildings.

In the meantime the increase in births and the registrations in the first grade continued at an alarming rate. A new survey revealed that the future enrollments would continue to increase, so that by 1958 there would be approximately 1,000 students in the schools. As a result the board proposes a new elementary building comprising of 12 classrooms, kindergarten rooms, and multi-purpose room which will be used for cafeteria, community meetings and recreational activity for children, be constructed to take care of the increased enrollment in the elementary areas.

Also proposed is construction of a vocational agriculture shop and classroom so that the vocational agriculture program may be re-established after a lapse of many years.

Repairs and alterations should be made to the two present buildings to prepare adequately for the present overflow of students and the future increase in high school enrollment, the audience also was told.

Mr. Sedeen, who represented the Joseph Baker Architect Firm of Newark, showed slides of exterior and interior views of school build-

Dear Donna:

I have one hundred commerative cups packed and ready to bring to the Younkin Reunion! The art work and color scheme is better this year and I hope the promise of a commerative cup has continued to stimulate early reservations making planning easier for you. I am donating these cups in memory of my parents for those Younkin Reunions of the Thirties and Forties was their social high point of the year. God bless you for all you have done to renew interest in the Younkin Clan and our Annual Younkin Reunion!

Please allow me a moment to brag about our son James Morgan Younkin for we adopted Jimmy when he was a little boy and all he had was a big smile and a good I.Q. Jim graduated from Murray State University in 1979 and began his career with International Paper shortly thereafter. He held executive positions at several IP plants and was Plant Manager before building a $30 million 275,000 sq. ft. plant at Bowling Green, Kentucky.

International Paper has annual sales of $16 billion and 70,000 employees in world wide operations. Jim is fifteen years younger than any of the other top executives and we are hoping he will receive a Vice Presidency for his next promotion. He is married to the former Nancy Lovett and they have two children who are athletes and keep the Younkin name in the sports columns of the Central Kentucky newspapers. Although Jim is not a Younkin by birth Evelyn and I like to think we might have helped in his success.

Our daughter Penny Younkin Jones and grand daughters Brooke and Chelsea are coming to the Younkin Reunion with us. Boy, am I getting excited! Hope everything is going OK, if I can be of further help please call or write.

Love

Cousin Tom

New BG plant last one aided by state

By ANDY DENNIS
The Daily News

Another major industry in Bowling Green had its grand opening Tuesday, but it will be the last plant to open under the assistance of a state incentive plan for which Warren County is no longer eligible.

Lt. Gov. Paul Patton said International Paper, which eventually plans to employ 400 workers at its state-of-the-art facility, is last in line in the county for tax incentives offered under Kentucky Rural Economic Development Authority.

Only counties that had unemployment rates above the state average for five consecutive years were en-

Going Strong Again

Colwell S. Younkin of Confluence, Pa., Somerset County, oldest Younkin member, who was very much under the weather at time of Reunion in August, but not too sick to be present. This grand old Younkin is endowed with the "never say die" spirit which is so predominating among many members of this great Younkin group. Well, just the same, Colwell is much alive and going strong again.

PAYS $25 TO GET PAYLESS COUNTY JOB

COLWELL S. YOUNKIN HAS BEEN COUNTY SURVEYOR 16 YEARS; NEVER COLLECTED A FEE; IS CANDIDATE AGAIN.

FIRST NAMED IN 1924

By CHARLES A. WELSH, Jr.

Twenty-five dollars is a lot of money to an 86-year-old man, who has worked for his living with his hands and head since boyhood. But Colwell S. Younkin, of Confluence, decided last month that it wasn't too much to pay for the honor of retaining his title of county surveyor.

So two weeks ago Mr. Younkin walked into the office of the county commissioners in Somerset and handed to Miss Elsie Duppstadt, clerk, a set of nominating petitions bearing more than 100 names. Attached to the petitions were two crisp ten-dollar bills and one five-dollar bill, the amount set by the 1937 legislature as necessary for primary candidates.

If he is re-elected this year, and Mr. Younkin is very confident that he will be, the aged but active Confluence surveyor will almost certainly become the record office-holder for continuous service in an elective county office in Somerset county. Next February 1 he will complete 16 years in the position to which he seeks re-election.

And in all those 16 years, Mr. Younkin has never received a cent of salary or fees, has in fact performed no service for the county.

Appointed in 1924

The record books show him as having held the office since being appointed by former Judge John A. Berkey in 1924. He served only a month less than four years under the appointment, was elected to the office in 1927, again in 1931 and 1939 will be his fifth candidacy.

Originally, Mr. Younkin says, he sought the office because the title brought him prestige and business. Today, although he still is an active surveyor, he retains the office, and is a candidate again "just for sentimental reasons."

The office of county surveyor was created by the Pennsylvania legislature many, many years ago, when there still was much vacant land in the commonwealth. The county surveyor worked under a fee system, and whenever any vacant land was found in the county, land not claimed by any owner and not producing tax revenues, the county surveyor was sent to inspect it, plot it, and make preparations for the county to claim title.

Little Unclaimed Land

Today, there is very little or no unclaimed land in Somerset county. None has been reported for nearly a decade, Mr. Younkin says, and the last time a survey of that type was made Mr. Younkin was ill and unable to function. So the survey was turned over by the county commissioners to Frank B. Fluck, veherable Somerset engineer, and Mr. Younkin missed the only chance he ever had or likely will have to "cash in" on his office.

Two decades ago the office was much sought after by engineers and surveyors. Strangers from other sections came or wrote to county officials asking the name of the county surveyor, because they needed some engineering work done in the county, and knew no capable man. The authorities always promptly replied with the name and address of the official, and in this way the title brought considerable private work to its holder.

It was this business that Mr. Younkin sought when he first became a candidate in the Republican primary of 1923. But his first venture into politics was unsuccessful, when the nomination went to one Irenus S. Pile, of Black township, the incumbent. However, Mr. Younkin did win the Democratic nomination but was beaten in the general election, 7835 to 1891. That was the only election he ever lost.

But about the time the biennial session of the legislature passed an act requiring that all county surveyors must be registered engineers or surveyors. And when Mr. Younkin discovered that Mr. Pile was not registered, he filed a petition pointing out this fact, and asking that he be appointed to the office.

Judge John A. Berkey received the petition February 1, 1924, and after promptly examining the law disqualified Mr. Pile and forthwith appointed Mr. Younkin.

In 1927, Mr. Younkin again sought election to the office and this time he was completely successful, winning Republican, Democrat and Prohibition nominations in the primary, and polling 12,106 votes in the general election. In 1931, Mr. Younkin was renominated by the Republican party, and in the general election defeated Mr. Fluck, 8689 to 2607. Marshal Lowery, Socialist candidate, polled 309 votes. Again in 1935 Mr. Younkin won the uncontested Republican nomination, and rode through to victory in the general election polling 15,902 votes against 11,427 for F. R. Boyd, the Democratic candidate.

Looks Much Younger

An average sized man physically, Mr. Younkin's appearance and activity belie his many years. He strides rapidly when walking, his shoulders erect and enjoys walking more than a mile from Confluence to his farm home even with a heavy load of groceries for himself and his wife.

His sparkling blue eyes and suntanned face, the brown spots showing through his thinning gray hair, indicates a man who has spent much of his life in the open. He still is active in surveying, and doesn't shy away from the steep hills and hard work to be found in the mountainous sections of the county. Only a few weeks ago he spent two days surveying a large tract of land atop Allegheny mountain near Sand Patch, one of the wildest sections in the county.

Mr. Younkin never had much formal schooling, but his pronunciation and vocabulary are those of a man who has read much and remembered well. When he talks, and becomes interested in his subject, he has a habit of frequently snapping his fingers as he gesticulates. His hobbies are many, but first and foremost is his work. Next he likes astronomy and mathematics, and he is somewhat of a linguist, speaks fluent German. Like his engineering, he learned German from a brother-in-law who studied at a German university before coming to America as a railroad engineer when the Baltimore and Ohio was building between Cumberland and Connellsville.

Learned Under An Engineer

Only a boy of 15 then, Mr. Younkin was fascinated by the work of the men who dictated where the road should be built, and under the tutelage of the university-schooled engineer he learned quickly and well.

But all his life hasn't been spent looking through a transit and measuring feet and perches with a surveyor's chain.

Many years ago he was struck by the glamor of the footlights, and toured vaudeville circuits for a half dozen years as a ventriloquist and sleight-of-hand performer, interspersing his performances with discussions of astronomy. He still saves and treasures handbills advertising the appearance of "that great ventriloquist Colwell Younkin" in towns and cities throughout the east. At one time he had his own show. Mr. Younkin often talks about those days, but he is satisfied as he is today, with no longing to go back to the footlights.

He isn't worrying any about re-election. "I filed as a Republican, have always been a Republican, and of course we're going to win. I don't even except the first time."

And he isn't worrying any about Father Time catching up with him either. "I'll serve out this term but I don't expect to be a candidate again in 1943.

"Twenty years in one office is a long time," he says with a proud smile.

LETTER FROM G. YOUNKIN

Long Island City, N. Y.,
Sept. 23rd, 1940.

Mr. Charles Younkin,
Box 170,
Charlerol, Pa.
2330
Dear Sir:

In response to your communication of August 4th, I am sending you — under separate cover — the plate you requested, hope it arrives in good condition.

The boy mentioned in the picture, Worthington Younkin, is an eighth generation in America.

Only son of George W. Younkin and Marion Lydecker Younkin. Molsters ancestors came to New York City, 1791, from Holland, City of Amsterdam.

Worthingtons grandfather born in Williamson County, Illinois, 1850. Name, Terry Lloyd Younkin.

Great grandfather settled in Williamson County about 1850. Coming there from Penn. with a young wife and took up farming and this old homestead is still in the family.

Worthington now 16 years old, gives Marionette shows in churches, community centers, etc., as a hobby.

Has also given exhibitions at N. Y. World's Fair.

Made most of the characters he uses, shows such as "Christmas Carols" Hanse and Gretchen, etc., in spare time after school hours. Built his own theatre stage and lighting equipment in portable form, has natural talent for practical electricity and is seriously interested in aviation equipment and maintenance.

Sorry I had to miss the 1940 reunion but surely intend to make the next one.

Wishing you much success and eagerly anticipating asother issue of the bulletin, I am,

Yours very truly,
G. YOUNKIN.

Compliments of

SPOTLIGHT ON OUR STARS

George Worthington Younkin

A native of New York City, he was born November 6, 1923, on 116th Street in upper Manhatten, the only son of George W. and Marion (Lydecker) Younkin. George's grandfather, Terry Lloyd Younkin, was born in Williamson County, IL. His G-grandfather had settled in Williamson Co. about 1830 coming from Pa.

George grew up in the New York City suburb of Flushing. One of George's hobbies as a young adult was the construction and exhibition of Marionettes. He made most of his own characters and also constructed the stages. A photograph taken at one of George's shows appeared in an older issue of the YFNB [Vol. 3 # 1 & 2 dated 25 Sep 1940] with the following caption: "Worthington, now 16 years old, gives Marionette shows in churches, community centers, etc. as a hobby. He has also given exhibitions at the New York World's Fair."

George attended P.S. 20 and Flushing High School from which he graduated in 1941. During WWII he served in the Army Signal Corps. He was discharged in 1946 with the rank of Sergeant and matriculated at Michigan State University, where he received the B.S.E.E. degree in 1950.

After several years with the Westinghouse Company and Giddings and Lewis (G & L) Machine Tool Co., George returned to his educational pursuits. He received his Masters Degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1957.

George was honored in 1988 as the recipient of Top IAS Award [source: newsletter of the IEEE - Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers] The purpose of this Distinguished Service Award is to give recognition and honor to a member for rendering exceptional service to the Industry Applications Society. George Younkin received this award in recognition of his continued important service to the IAS since 1966.

George and his wife Nancy (a Masters graduate of University of Wisconsin-OshKosh -School of Psychology) live in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. Nancy pursued a career as both an Elementary School Guidance Director and School Psychologist. Their children (both graduates of Univ. of Wisc.) are: a son, Gregory, and a daughter, Janine.

Mrs. Mary Phillippi.

"Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north winds breath
And stars to set—but all,
Thou hast all seasons for thy own, oh death!"

In the death of Mrs. Mary Phillippi, Somerset county has lost another of its oldest residents. The deceased, whose maiden name was Mary Younkin, a descendant of one of the pioneer families of Somerset county, was born in Upper Turkeyfoot township, June 15, 1817, and always lived in the Turkeyfoot township, departed this life April 16, 1901, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Martha Jane Enos, near Humbert, and was aged 86 years, 10 months and 1 day. She had been in delicate health from the infirmities of age all winter; about two weeks ago she commenced to fail and received all the kindness and care that tender hearts and loving hands could bestow, until the final end came, when she passed away as she had lived, gently and peacefully, from the world into which she had spent a most long and useful life, mourned and respected by all.

The deceased when quite young married the late Samuel Phillippi, who preceded her to the grave March 29, 1902. Both she and her late husband were life long members of the M. E. church, the latter having been a class leader for 60 years. She joined the church when quite young. To this consistent christian couple were born eleven children of whom seven survive her. The four daughters are, Mrs. Martha Jane Enos, Lower Turkeyfoot township, Mrs. Christain Kountz, Ursina, Mrs. Fred Kregar, Lower Turkeyfoot township, Mrs. Scott Sechler, Paddytown. The sons are Aaron Phillippi, Lower Turkeyfoot township, Jacob and Harmon Phillipp', Kingwood. Wesley, died in Nebraska about ten years ago. Besides her children, she also leaves a large number of grand children and great grand children, over 120 descendants in all, most of whom reside in the immediate vicinity of where she and her husband spent their long and useful life.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from the Paddytown church and was largely attended. Rev. S. W. Bryan of the Ursina circuit of the M. E. church preached the funeral sermon. The pall bearers were six grand children of the deceased viz:—James and Frank Kregar of Confluence, Charles and Samuel Koontz, Ursina, John and Jud Enos, Humbert. Interment at Paddytown cemetery.

"As the panting hart to the water-brook runs
As the water-brook runs to the sea,
So earth's fainting daughters and famishing sons
Oh, fountain of love, run to Thee"

Earth with its dark and dreadful ills
Recedes and fades away;
Lift up your heads, ye heavenly hills'
Ye gates of death give way'

My soul is filled of whispered song;
My blindness is my sight:
The shadows that I feared so long,
Are all alive with light.

The while my pulse fairly beat,
My faith doth so abound,
I feel grow firm beneath my feet
The green immortal ground.

The family have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in this sad affliction of losing an affectionate and loving mother.

Mrs. Eliza Schrock Shumac.

Mrs. Eliza Schrock-Shumac died at the family residence in Summit township, April 20th, 1901, aged 50 years, 1 month and 19 days.

The deceased was a daughter of Benjamin Schrock, who preceded her some years ago. She is survived by her husband, and six children, Mrs. John Engle of Keim, Wilson, Mrs. Irvin Miller, Mrs. Elmer Engle of Summit Mills, John and Miss Ida at home, also by her aged mother, four brothers and four sisters, John, William, Jacob, and Elias Schrock, and Mrs. Lewis Kretchman, Mrs. Noah Gnagey, Mrs. George Witt, and Mrs. John Fidler.

The funeral was very largely attended by the many people who loved and respected her.

Services were held in the German Baptist church at Summit Mills, conducted by Elders C. F. Clark and Joel Gnagey. A NIECE.

OBITUARY NOTES.

Edna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edmond died at the home of her parents near Humbert, aged 3 years. Funeral Sunday, following at Ursina.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Tressler, died April 19th.

After a brief illness, Moses M. Snyder died at New Lexington, aged 68 years. Mr. Snyder was born in Upper Turkeyfoot township, and always lived in that vicinity. The funeral took place Friday afternoon April 19th from New Centreville church. Rev. A. B Miller, officiating. A widow and seven children survive him.

SALISBURY.

ELK LICK, April 26—The new elevator company composed of the following persons: Nevin Newman, Richard Newman, Bud Newman, Jerry Keim, William McKnelcht and Steward Smith met in Hays Hall one evening last week and decided to build at once.

Mr. and Mrs. J L Barchus are visiting friends in McKeesport for a few days.

Daniel Meyers is wearing a bandage over his left eye as the result of having been kicked in the face by a horse.

George Schramm is still confined to his bed.

One of Nevin Newman's sons was carrying a chicken while riding horse back. The horse was frightened by the chicken and threw the boy to the ground and happened to tramp on his head. The boy is in a serious condition.

Christian Koontz was born in Somerset county on March 13, 1848 and was therefore aged 64 years, 8 months and 15 days. On May 25, 1875, he was united in marriage to Miss Amanda Phillippi who survives him. The surviving children are Charles E. who lives at home and is engaged in teaching school at Confluence; James F. and Samuel W., who also live in Ursina. He is survived by six grand children and two half-sisters, Mrs. Levi Williams and Miss Carrie Koontz of Meyersdale. He came to live at Ursina soon after the borough was incorporated and lived there continuously since.

Mr. Koontz was a man of Christain character, who led a pure and upright life. He was a sincere worker in church and Sunday school, being a consistent member of the Methodist church for many years and always connected in some official capacity with the congregation to which he was attached. He was a devoted husband and father and a kind and charitable neighbor. Although in moderate circumstances, he was always ready to reach a helping hand to those in sickness and distress. It could be well said of him that he never wrongsd any one during his life. He was a charter member of Ursina Council Order of United America.

The funeral took place at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, December 10, from the Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. G. W. Ringer of Ohiopyle, a former pastor of the Ursina Methodist church officiating. Among the floral tributes was a beautiful wreath of lilies from the pupils of grades No. 6 and 7 of the Confluence public schools, who are now, or were pupils of his son, Charles E. Koontz. The pall-bearers were members of the Order of America. Interment in Ursina cemetery. For many years Mr. Koontz devoted much time to beautifying this cemetery and was always urgent in his appeals to lot owners to make it a place worthy of being the abode of loved ones who have passed to the Great Beyond.

Christian Koontz. 1913

—In the death of Christian Koontz Ursina has lost one of its oldest and most respected residents and his demise which occured at 9:4 o'clock Sunday morning, December cast gloom over the community wher he lived for about 40 years. On Sunday morning, after eating his breakfast, he retired to his room to prepar for Sunday school, and when he remained up stairs longer than usual th family went to his room to ascertai the cause and found him lying acros the bed partly dressed, cold in death The cause of his death was heart failure a disease of which he complaine often.

Somerset Concert Association Plans For New Season

At the reorganization meeting of the Board of Directors and members of the Somerset Community Concert Association, last Thursday evening, all former officers were re-elected. They are: president, Mrs. Martha Coleman; first vice president Ernest Statler; second vice president, James O. Courtney; third vice president, Philip M. Schaff; secretary Mrs. Katherine Kiefman; treasurer George Scull Cook.

Mrs. Coleman, appointed James O. Courtney to serve as chairman of the membership campaign which is scheduled for the week of May 16. Mrs. Margaret Beabes will work at headquarters as secretary again this year.

Returns are coming in already from the letters sent recently to members asking for voluntary renewal of membership without the necessity of personal solicitation. From all indications there should be a "sell-out" again this year.

Directors other than the officers mentioned above are Mrs. H. A. Critchfield, A. J. Kerm, R. A. Poorbaugh, Elizabeth Rinard, Mrs. Joseph Lippincott, Harold Schrock, Chester Singer, Mrs. Edward Speer, all of Somerset; Philip Schaff, Rockwood; Don M. Kimmel, Berlin; Rev. J. D. Forester, Stoystown, and Mrs. Ralph Rosenberger, Meyersdale.

A dinner meeting of the officers and directors and their workers in the membership campaign will be held Monday evening at the Penner Hotel, Somerset, at which time the enrollment of members for the 1949-50 season will begin. Each director is responsible for five workers.

The membership campaign will not be difficult, as Mr. Courtney points out, if members of the association for the past season renew their membership promptly by means of the blank sent in his letter of May 4.

Anyone in the Meyersdale area who was not a member during the past season, but would like to become a member in order to enjoy the concerts of the next season, should contact Mrs. Ralph Rosenberger, Meyersdale, as soon as possible.

Rockwood Man, 72, Drowned in Stream

John R. Younkin, 72, Rockwood RD was found dead Tuesday afternoon in a small stream on a farm owned by his brother Peter Younkin, Markleton RD 1, near Rockwood in Somerset County.

Mr. Younkin, who made his home with a daughter, Mrs. Roy Mitts, near Rockwood, had gone to visit his brother Tuesday. He disappeared during the afternoon, and when he did not return at supper-time, relatives and neighbors began to search for him.

He was found about 6:30 p.m. by John Fletcher, Markleton RD 1. Mr. Fletcher discovered the man's body sprawled in the small stream, his face buried in about 18 inches of water.

Mr. Younkin had injuries about his eyes and on his head. It was thought he was injured when he fell into the stream.

Dr. A. M. Uphouse, county coroner, listed the death as accidental drowning.

Mr. Younkin formerly resided on the farm where he met his death and was a retired farmer and woodsman.

Mrs. Crossen, 98, Oldest Resident In Perry Township, Dies

Mrs. Catherine Crossen, 98 years old, died at about 12:10 o'clock this morning at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sanner, at Star Junction, of complications incident to advanced age.

The oldest resident of Perry township, she leaves these children: Mrs. Almead Younkin of Overdale, Mrs. Emma Harnet of Bedford, Mrs. Susan Sanner of Cuyahoga Falls, Mrs. Jennie Emrick of Quakertown, James Crossen of Polk, Ohio, and Mrs. Thomas Sanner of Star Junction. There are 49 grandchildren, 73 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

There will be a brief service at 12 o'clock noon Thursday at the Sanner home at Star Junction and a full service at 2 o'clock at the Kingwood Church of God, Somerset county. Interment will be in the Lutheran Church cemetery, there in charge of the undertaking firm of Ira Blair & Sons of Perryopolis.

Mrs. Crossen was a native of Kingwood and had spent most of her life in that section of Somerset county. She had been living with the sanners for 40 years, being at Star Junction for 18 years.

MRS. ALICE YOUNKIN

SCOTTDALE, Jan. 17.—Mrs. Alice A. Younkin, 83 years old, died Wednesday night at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Frank Rhoadman, on Route 31 near Jones Mills. She had been a resident of Owensdale for 35 years and was a member of the United Brethren Church there.

1944

She leaves two daughters and one son, Mrs. Frank King of Smithfield, Mrs. Daniel Firestone of Confluence and Harry Younkin of Owensdale. There are 25 grandchildren and three sisters and one brother, James Crossen of Poke, Ohio, Mrs. James Sanner of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, Mrs. Albert Emerick of Quakertown, Ohio, and Mrs. Thomas Sanner of Star Junction.

Friends may call at the home at Owensdale and the funeral service will be held at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the United Brethren Church there in charge of Rev. George E. Smith, pastor. Burial will be made in Scottdale Cemetery.

TYPEWRITING AWARDS PRESENTED DUNBAR TOWNSHIP STUDENTS

The rendition of an oration and the presentation of typewriting awards marked the chapel exercises Monday morning at the Dunbar Township High School.

Henry Allen of the senior class who participated in the Fayette county eliminations in the national oratorical contest, rendered his selection. He was presented with a certificate which reads: "Delivered the oration adjudged the most thoughtful in discussion and effective in presentation to increase interest in and respect for the Constitution of the United States."

Garnet Stephens, senior, was presented with a silver pin for typewriting 41 net words per minute. She had five errors during a recent test.

Certificates were presented in the following:

Eleanor Younkin Is Bride of Geo. C. Fretts

SCOTTDALE, Pa., 1939.—Saturday evening, December 16, at the Owensdale United Brethren Church Miss Eleanor M. Younkin, daughter of Mrs. Audith K. Younkin and the late Herman S. Younkin, of Owensdale, became the bride of George C. Fretts, son of Mrs. A. G. Fretts and A. G. Fretts, late of Scottdale. Rev. W. V. Barnhart, pastor of the church, read the impressive ring ceremony at 7:30 o'clock before an embankment of palms and ferns.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Edna Shallenberger gave a short piano recital and as the bridal party came into the church she played Wagner's wedding march from "Lohengrin."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, James W. Younkin, appeared in a gown of white slipper satin, styled with puffed sleeves and a square neckline. Her shoulder length veil of tulle fell from a wreath of tiny gardenias and her bridal bouquet pas of Madonna lilies.

Eleanor Gehring of Owensdale, the bride's only attendant, wore an ice blue taffeta gown, princess styled, and carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart roses.

Gilbert Weisel of Scottdale was Mr. Fretts' best man. Sanford Younkin, brother of the bride, and Clarence Brown, Jr., ushered.

The ceremony was followed by a small reception at the home of the bride.

On their return from a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Fretts will be at home near Scottdale.

Younkin seeking new murder trial

By Sylvia Cavallo
The Daily Courier

A Connellsville man convicted more than 10 years ago of helping to plot the murder of his lover's husband now wants a new trial.

Elmer Wayne Younkin, who is spending his life in prison on a first-degree murder conviction in connection with the murder of John K. "Sonny" Tomasek of Uniontown, filed a motion for post-conviction collateral relief, which — if granted — would entitle him to a new trial, even though he has already exhausted all his appeals.

In the motion, Younkin claimed that his court-appointed attorney, David Margolis, failed to object to testimony given by state police troopers during his 1981 trial.

YOUNKIN WAS convicted of helping plot the Nov. 14, 1980, shooting death of Tomasek.

Tomasek, a truck driver, was shot several times in the driveway of his New Salem area (Menallen Township) home. He died two days later as a result of the shooting.

During the trial, witnesses testified that Younkin and Tomasek's wife, Phoebe, were engaged in an affair and plotted to have Tomasek killed, paying for the murder with a $20,000 life insurance policy in Tomasek's name.

The pair allegedly bargained with Joseph Peter Frankenberry of Scottdale, who acted as triggerman.

Charles Huey, a New York acquaintance of Frankenberry's, allegedly drove the vehicle for Frankenberry.

Huey was granted immunity for his testimony during the trial and was later placed in the witness protection program. His testimony implicated Mrs. Tomasek, Younkin and Frankenberry and was vital to the prosecution's case.

Frankenberry and Younkin were tried together in 1981 in Fayette County. Phoebe Tomasek's trial was held separately. All three were convicted of first-degree murder and are serving life sentences.

Since his conviction, Younkin has made several attempts at filing for a new trial and has claimed that he was improperly represented and unfairly tried for the crime. Younkin has been denied new trails by both the Common Pleas and Superior courts in the past.

ROCKWOOD. 10/15/1913

Contractor Baker Electrocuted.

Contractor N. S. Baker, one of Rockwood's most prominent citizens, wes electrocuted last Thursday evening about 6:45 o'clock, while assisting a neighbor, W. H. Holler, to fix a wire in the cellar of his house, by coming in contact with a live wire, although there was but 110 volts on the line. Mr. Baker's physical condition is considered to have caused his death. He had been twice elected as a school director of Rockwood and was finishing his second term. He is survived by a wife and nine children. The funeral services were held Saturday at 2 P. M., with interment in the Rockwood Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Barn Burned.

Last week the barn of J. F. Younkin of Middlecreek township was destroyed by fire. The entire year's crops, farming implements and horse were destroyed. The exact cause of the fire is unknown, but it is thought that it was started by children who were playing around the barn.

Minor Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Younkin have returned to their home at Rockwood after spending several weeks visiting their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Younkin and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dumbauld, both of Milford township.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wolfersberger of Rockwood departed Wednesday of last week for an extended visit in the east, visiting Mrs. Wolfersberger's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. McMillen at Hagerstown, Md.; also Middletown, Md., Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Md., Philadelphia and New York.

Miss Mary Kirkpatrick is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kirkpatrick of Addison.

Charles E. Bolby of Rockwood, and Miss Stella Forespring, of New Centerville, were recently married in Cumberland. They will make their future home at New Centerville.

Pure Food Agent E. D. Miller of the Bedford and Somerset districts, spent several days in Pittsburg last week where he was in consultation with the state dairy and food commissioner.

Parents of Lincoln and Grant Miner namely: Charles E., who married Drusilla Perdew, by whom he has one son, George E.; Hubert A.; Chester G.; and Mary L.

JOHN F. YOUNKIN,* Town Auditor of Upper Turkey Foot, Somerset County, Pa., was born in this township, July 18, 1856, son of Herman and Susan (Faidley) Younkin. Jacob Younkin, his great-grandfather, emigrated from Germany, settling in Loudoun County, Virginia, and later came to Pennsylvania. He married Hannah Nicolo, a resident of Virginia, and had a large family. The grandfather was John J. Younkin, a native of Virginia, who came with his parents to Somerset County when a young man and engaged in farming. He married Polly Hartzell, a representative of a German family. Her father, John Hartzell, served in the American army all through the Revolutionary War. John J. and Polly (Hartzell) Younkin were the parents of nine children.

Herman Younkin, the father, was born in Upper Turkey Foot in 1821. He was a prosperous farmer, and the farm upon which his son John F. now resides, was purchased by him in 1872 of Jacob McMillen. He was prominently identified with the Methodist Episcopal church, and officiated as a local preacher. He died September 21, 1885. He is survived by his wife, formerly Susan Faidley, of Middle Creek township, and four of their ten children, the record of the family being as follows: Joanna, who married Ephraim Miner, and died in 1874, leaving two children; Wesley, who died at the age of twelve years; Freeman, who was accidentally killed in 1889; Mary Ann, who died at the age of nineteen years; Irving, who died in 1895; John F., the subject of this sketch; Sarah Jane, who married John Calflush, and resides in Lower Turkey Foot; Curtin, who died at the age of sixteen; Ellen, who is residing with her mother at Paddytown; and Milton Bruce Younkin, also of Paddytown.

John F. Younkin was educated in the public schools. He was reared to farm life, and he assisted in carrying on the home farm until twenty-eight years old. He then bought his father's farm at Paddytown, containing two hundred and forty-seven acres, and is now engaged in general farming and stock-raising.

In 1878 Mr. Younkin was united in marriage with Elizabeth McNair, daughter of Samuel and Eleanor (McNair) McNair, of Addison. She is of Irish origin, the immigrant ancestor of the McNair family in Pennsylvania having arrived in this country at an early date. Her grandfather, Samuel McNair, first, married Phœbe Round, and had three sons and two daughters. Samuel McNair, second, Mrs. Younkin's father, married a daughter of Andrew McNair, and had six daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Younkin have six children; namely, Albert A., William E., Sarah E., Mary E., Susan E., and Mentie A. Younkin.

Public affairs have absorbed considerable of Mr. Younkin's time. He has rendered efficient services to the township as School Director two terms, Supervisor three terms, and is now attending to the duties of Town Auditor. In politics he is a Republican. He belongs to Confluence Council, No. 1294, Royal Arcanum. He is a member and a trustee of Mount Bethel Methodist Episcopal Church at Paddytown.

Sympathy for a Young Bride.

Charles Wi:reut and Miss Irene Younkin, who were married in Cumberland last Thursday, and since been arrested on complaint of the bride's mother, Mrs. Annie Younkin, have the sympathy of the entire community. The bride is a very lovable young lady who has the respect of all her school mates and neighbors. She is a granddaughter of Jonas Meyers and John F. Younkin, two of Somerset county's wealthiest farmers. Her mother has been making her home with John D. Seehler since the death of his mother, more than a year ago.

Surprise for a Kind Neighbor.

let and her husband E. Devon Coleman. The adjoining Reuben Klink farm was purchased by Glenn and his wife, Betty.

Glenn Wilbur (06-23-1922) was married to Betty Jane Burkett (11-09-1925) on January 24, 1948. To this union were born Linda Kay (03-19-1949), Robert Lee (07-14-1951), David John (06-10-1954), and James Edward (08-29-1955). Glenn and Betty reared their children on the farm but the children have found work elsewhere. Glenn and Betty presently reside on the old Levi Shockey farm where he was raised. They continue to own the adjoining farm they purchased from Reuben Klink. Their daughter, Linda, is a school teacher in Meyersdale. She was first married to James Cane (04-11-1952) on December 18, 1970 but the union was broken when James died of leukemia on January 30, 1971. On July 2, 1979 Linda was married to Raymond Joseph Emerick (05-21-1937). Glenn's son, Robert, married Cheryl Swank (10-17-1952) on July 1, 1972. They are the parents of Gregory Scott (04-21-1973), Susan Rae (10-12-1975), and Roger Lee (07-01-1978). Glenn's son, David, married Laurel Louise Meyers (03-24-1955) on May 24, 1975. They have one child, Jennie April (04-26-1977).

Violet Marie Vought (05-31-1923) was married to Earl Devon Coleman (01-09-1921) on June 26, 1948. To this union were born Earl Devon Coleman, Jr. (07-17-1949), Carol Jane (05-09-1951), John Alton (08-13-1952), William Lee (05-12-1955), Rosemarie (02-10-1957), and Ruth Ann (06-03-1959). William married Lisa Jayne Cox (12-13-1958) on November 4, 1978. Rosemarie was married to Brian Lynn Younkin (01-24-1957) on August 6, 1976. Violet and Earl Devon Coleman presently own and operate the old Charles Sechler farm in Milford Township.

John and his brother, Charles, were married to sisters, Cora and Sarah Shockey, daughters of Levi (12-04-1872 to 12-12-1912) and Ellen Shockey (02-22-1876 to 02-15-1947). John and Cora Vought were active members of the Lutheran Church theoughout their married life. For many years they were members of Messiah Lutheran Church in New Centeyville. They are buried in the Rockwood I.O.O.F. Cemetery. For ancestral background refer to John Vought, the father of John Cornelius Vought, who lived in Black Township. Submitted by Glenn Wilbur Vought

WILLIAM VOUGHT

William and Lydia Vought were residents of Black Township having owned and operated a 330 acre farm situated across the Casselman River from the village of Casselman. It was here they reared a family of six children: Henry, Sarah, Elizabeth, Phebe, John, and Lucinda.

Henry Vought was married to Susannah Sanner, daughter of Robert (03-15-1818 to 03-21-1889) and Elizabeth (Miller) Sanner (03-15-1822 to 11-18-1910) of Black Township. Susannah had a son to a previous marriage but no children were born to Henry and Susannah. She was first married to Clare Coddington and lived in Morgantown, WV. Henry owned and operated a 39 acre tract of land in Black Township situated east of Forge Road and south of the Rockwood Road near the Rockwood reservoir. He bought this land from Alexander Sanner in 1889. Mrs. Earl Wahl (Vera) is now living on a portion of this tract of land. The Rockwood I.O.O.F. Cemetery records show that Susannah died August 12, 1911, aged 61 years. The census of 1850 shows she was born in 1848. An Affidavit of Death shows that Henry died November 16, 1911, and cemetery records show he was 70 years old.

Sarah Vought was married to Freeman Sanner, born 1849, son of Robert and Elizabeth (Miller) Sanner. Freeman was a brother to Susannah Vought mentioned above. He was one of twelve children reared on a farm in Black Township near the Rockwood reservoir. This farm was later owned and operated by Alexander and Amanda (Enfield) Sanner. Amanda came from New Lexington. Freeman's brothers were Alexander, Truman Jonathan, Michael, and Herman. Freeman's father and mother are buried in the Laurel Lutheran Church Cemetery. Recoeds show that Freeman went west at an early age and settled in Moeril, Marshall County, Kansas. It is believed they had five children: William, John, Martin, Sylvania Eichelberger, and Lydia E. Jones.

Elizabeth Vought was intermarried with Jonas Romesburg (Remsberg), youngest son of John Jacob Romesburg (07-18-1779) who had eight children. Jonas married Rachel Nicklow, and at her decease, Elizabeth Vought. They were the parents of thirteen children: Margaret, wife of J.A. Cunningham; William, Winfield, Hiram, Susan, wife of Harrison Brougher; Nelson, Ellen, wife of Kim Lenhart; Mary, wife of Newton Dwyer; Amanda, Ida, wife of William Shultz; Luther, who perished in a coal mine; William, who married Irene McVay; John, who married Ella Younkin. John and Ella (Younkin) Romesburg became the parents of Thelma Pauline, Albert A., and Melvin E. Albert was married to Faye Ream and have Ronald L., Roger A., and R. Neil. Roger married Carol Ann Sembower and to this union were born Scott and Debra. Roger and Carol presently reside in Rockwood. Jonas Romesburg (07-15-1828 to 09-08-1925) and Elizabeth (Vought) Romesburg (01-21-1844 to 04-03-1925) are buried in the Kingwood I.O.O.F. Cemetery. They had lived on a farm near Paddytown.

Phebe Vought intermarried with Freeman Nicola, son of Jacob and Catharine (Ansell) Nicola. To this union was born one child, William Willis Nicola. Phebe died 02-16-1878 aged 29 years, 11 months, 12 days. She is buried in the Laurel Lutheran Church Cemetery with her parents, William and Lydia Vought. Freeman's second wife was Nellie E. Firestone. Freeman (03-05-1844 to 09-16-1928) and Nellie (02-01-1841 to 02-21-1909) are buried in Old Bethel Church Cemetery in Upper Turkeyfoot Township. Freeman was married a third time for a short time to Sloan Pyle. Phebe's son, William Willis Nicola, changed his name to Nicklow. So William Willis Nicklow (1874-1952) was married to Minnie R. Stairs (1873-1970) and to this union were born Clarence who married Lillie Faidley, and at her decease, Mary Warrick, daughter of Thomas and Bessie (Seibert) Warrick; Harry married Mollie Tressler, daughter of Lloyd Tressler; Orion married Nannie Saler, daughter of Ross Saler; Lula, a twin of Lola, married Wilbur Yoder and Lola married Edward Williams. Prison inmates repair vandalism at cemetery

By SANDRA LEPLEY
Staff Writer

"This has been a blessing in disguise," said Everett Sechler, president of the board of trustees of the Crossroads Cemetery in Lower Turkeyfoot Township.

Last month, vandals damaged five irreplaceable headstones in the cemetery between Ursina and the Turkeyfoot Valley Area Schools.

The seven-member cemetery board was not sure what to do about the estimated $2,000 damage at the time; however, this week, a crew of four inmates on a community work program with State Correctional Institution (SCI)-Somerset have repaired the damage stones and other ones as well.

"Our cemetery association has a small treasury and this vandalism was a very serious problem," said Sechler, whose grandfather, the late Walter Sechler, was an original member of the cemetery board.

The cemetery board was formed in the early 1940s and at that time, the cemetery was like "a wilderness," explained Sechler.

The cemetery has about 100 graves of people who lived in the late 1700s, 1800s and 1900s, including some Revolutionary War and Civil War veterans. At the entrance to the cemetery, there once was a log church and in 1870, the church dissolved with 11 members forming the Trinity Lutheran Church in Confluence and 11 members forming the Lutheran Church in Ursina, according to Sechler.

"My worry is that with a little treasury and few donations, history may sadly repeat itself and the cemetery will again fall into disarray as it did in the 1940s," said Sechler.

The cemetery's board of trustees consists of members Sechler, Don Wirsing, vice president; Everett Rodabaver, secretary; Mike Lytle, treasurer; and Dale Gower, Irene Heinbaugh and Bill Methemey. Wirsing has maintained the cemetery for the past 15 years.

"We have been wanting to get together for some time now to work on the cemetery but could never find the time to do it," Sechler said.

After reading a newspaper article in the Daily American, Raymond Sobina, prison superintendent, thought the restoration of the cemetery would be a good project for the inmates on the community work program.

The community work program began last fall at SCI-Somerset, and minimum-security inmates in it have worked throughout the county, including Laurel Hill State Park, the Meyersdale flood control project and the Somerset State Police barracks.

According to Larry Amenti, the prison's inmate program manager, the inmates have been repairing the damaged tombstones as well as cementing and straightening other ones.

"The vandalism was a criminal act, and I think it is significant that the inmates are restoring the damages," said Amenti.

He explained that this type of project gives the inmates "self-esteem and opportunity to do work they may have never have had the chance to do."

According to Sechler, the work the inmates have done has saved the trustees time and money and is very much appreciated. The materials for the cemetery restoration have been donated by community members.

"The trustees are well pleased with the work that the inmates are doing," said Sechler. "We may have had a criminal act committed here, but it turned around to our advantage."

EVERETT WILLIAM SECHLER

My family resides along Route 281, R.D. #3, Confluence, Pa., Lower Turkeyfoot Township, Somerset County. We purchased our 56 acre farmette in May of 1977 from Everett and Genevieve Tressler. The Tresslers, along with their son's family (Everett J. and Brenda Tressler) reside at the bottom of a small hill on which our house is located. Because of the three Everetts, we amusingly refer to the area as Mt. Everett.

My wife Christine and I are members of Messiah Lutheran Church in New Centerville, Kingwood Grange, and I belong to the Kingwood I.O.O.F. Lodge. An annual affair of ours is the Kingwood Picnic, one of the largest one day affairs of its kind anywhere in Pennsylvania. We enjoy the making of snow cones, doughnuts, etc. in our stand. The Kingwood Picnic celebrated its 59th anniversary in 1979.

My wife and I are independent insurance agents and teachers in the Turkeyfoot Valley Area School District. I am a sixth grade teacher while Chris teaches science in the high school. We both are members of the Turkeyfoot Valley Education Association.

We are the parents of a son, Joel Everett, born November 12, 1977. Joel's favorite activities include looking at books, rocking and listening to music.

In politics, I am a fourth known generation Republican, having "converted" my wife from "Democratic" parents. Presently I am serving my first term as Republican Committeeman.

Chris is a newcomer at Somerset County making her home here after our marriage on August 12, 1973. She is the daughter of Floyd C. and Joanna Pallette Marasco of Washington, Pa. A pure Italian-American, she is only the second generation to have been born in the United States. Chris can trace her ancestry on both her parents' sides to the town of San Giovanni in Fiore, located in Southern Italy.

My family has had ties on the North American Continent for over two hundred years with veterans of the Revolutionary War, War of 1812 and the Civil War.

I am the fourth child of Earle and Ella Gindlesperger Sechler. I was reared on the family farm in Paddytown, Upper Turkeyfoot Township. The farm has been in our family for over one hundred years and is currently owned by my brother Elden-the fifth Generation.

My father's side of the family comes from German ancestry, My grandmother Susan Elizabeth Younkin Sechler's great, great-grandfather, Jacob Younkin, emegrated to Loudoun County, Virginia, from Germany. He moved to Somerset County. My great, great-grandfather, Herman Younkin, who purchased the family farm, was also a minister. He preached at the Mt. Bethel Methodist Episcopal Church located on the edge of his farm and is buried in the family Younkin Cemetery, located on the farm.

My mother's ancestry includes many Amish and Mennonite ties. Her parents, William and Clara Kauffman Gindlesperger, purchased a farm in Milford Township in 1921, and it is still owned by my cousin William Gindlesperger. My great-great-great-great-grandfather, Christian Blauch, came to America from Switzerland in 1750. Submitted by Everett William Sechler

Mr. Elton H. Hickman Miss Vera A. Sechler, Recently Married

CONFLUENCE, Pa., June 2, 1938.—Miss Verna A. Sechler and Elton H. Hickman were married at a quiet ceremony Thursday evening, June 2, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Sechler, of Confluence. The bridegroom's brother, Dr. A. R. Hickman, Presbyterian minister of Chicago, read the marriage service at 8 o'clock.

Before the ceremony, Thomas DeBolt sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Miss Sarah M. Jane Wilson, who also played the wedding march.

The bride wore a blue lace gown and carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses and yellow daisies. Her attendant, Miss Lois Gene Bradley, wore a gown of peach lace and a corsage of talisman roses and lilies of the valley.

Ben Burnworth of Confluence served as Mr. Hickman's best man.

After a reception, Mr. and Mrs. Hickman left for Cook Forest, Clarion county. They will reside in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Hickman is a graduate of Juniata College, Huntingdon, Pa., and was a member of the Confluence High School faculty until her marriage.

Mr. Hickman did graduate work at the Universities of Pittsburgh and Chicago. He is a member of the faculty of the Knoxville High School, Pittsburgh.

Guests at the wedding were: Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Hickman, Chicago; E. D. Hickman, the bridegroom's father, Park Ridge, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. James Bradley, Miss Lois Bradley, Miss Alice Jean Smith, McKeesport; Reed Brightwell, Fayette City; Mr. and Mrs. Earle Sechler, Somerset; Lucille Carney and Albert Carney, Robertsdale; Thomas DeBolt, Connellsville; Sarah M. Jane Wilson, Ben Burnworth, Lynn Sechler, Mrs. D. Elizabeth Younkin, the bride's grandmother, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Sechler, parents of the bride, all of Confluence.

Dear Donna:

Long time no hear. I'm sending information on George COLFLESH so you will have his phone number.

I went to the FLEEGLE reunion on 3 July and got the tie in with BLOOM and FLEEGLE plus a lot I was missing on the MILLER families.

I went to the KENSEY reunion on 16 July and while in Bedford found a book on the POORBAUGH line that has a tie in with the YOUNKIN, BOWSER and KOLBFLEISH lines. KOLBFLEISH may be the original spelling of COLFLESH. I made a copy of the pages I though you maybe interested in. If it looks to be of any value and you would like to borrow the book, let me know.

Went to see Clayton twice but wasn't home either time. Will keep after him.

I may have told you of a Ed YOUNKIN that I knew who passed away a couple of years ago. I met his son last week at a funeral and he said that the YOUNKIN paper was still being printed and he would try and get me a copy. He said that the YOUNKIN reunion is still being held on the closest week-end to the 4th of July.

Keep in touch.

Your friend,
Robert D. Bloom
